- 4.1.2 A Representative must take reasonable steps to verify the identity of each Client or each of their Client Agents.
- 4.1.3 A Representative or mortgagee must take reasonable steps to verify the identity and authority of any Client or Client Agent to whom certificates of title are provided. This Rule does not apply to a Representative or mortgagee providing a certificate of title to another Representative or mortgagee for the purposes of settlement of a conveyancing transaction (including a refinance transaction).

NOTE: To clarify, Rule 4.1.3 does not apply to a Representative or mortgagee providing a certificate of title to another Representative or mortgagee due to the Client engaging another Representative or mortgagee.

 - (b) it would otherwise be reasonable to do so.

- 4.4.2 For the purposes of sections 56C(1) and (2) of the RPA, a mortgagee is to be considered as having taken reasonable steps to ensure that the person who validly executed a mortgage, or on whose behalf the mortgage was validly executed, as mortgagor is the same person who is, or is to become, the registered proprietor of the land that is security for the payment of the debt to which the mortgage relates if the mortgagee or the mortgagee's agent has taken the steps set out in the Verification of Identity Standard.
- 4.4.3 In applying the Verification of Identity Standard for the purposes of this Rule:
- (a) a reference to a subscriber is to be read as a reference to a mortgagee,

 - (d) references to client authorisations are to be disregarded.

NOTE: This Rule replicates and continues the requirements for a mortgagee to be deemed to have taken reasonable steps to identify the mortgagor that prior to 19 May 2017 were set out in Regulation 16 of the Real Property Regulation 2014.
